

TANZANIA

Women, Business and the Law (WBL), in collaboration with the Global Financing Facility (GFF), has collected data on laws affecting women's and girls' access to sexual and reproductive health (SRH), as well as frameworks supporting their implementation. Data were collected through desk research and a questionnaire administered to country experts. The analysis is organized around five indicators. For each indicator, the legal framework is assessed based on domestic laws and regulations. The supportive framework is assessed based on instruments—such as national policies, strategies, and guidelines—that are currently in effect and support the implementation of these laws.

INDICATOR		WHAT DOES IT MEASURE?
		Legal Frameworks	Supportive Frameworks
	SRH rights	Right to SRH; guaranteed access to free SRH services without discrimination	Existence and contents of an operational SRH policy or strategy
	Violence against women and girls (VAWG)	Prohibition of female genital mutilations (FGM)	Adoption of measures to eradicate FGM
	Family planning	Absence of legal restrictions on SRH services, such as the need for consent from a husband, male guardian, parent or third party	Family planning guidelines or protocols
	Comprehensive sexuality education (CSE)	Legal mandates for CSE in schools	Guidelines for delivery of CSE in schools
	Right to education	Girls' legal right to attend school during pregnancy and after childbirth	Policies to keep girls in school and allow pregnant and parenting students to attend school

LEGAL AND SUPPORTIVE FRAMEWORKS

Tanzania has a comprehensive and defined framework for:

SRH RIGHTS

The National Plan for Reproductive, Maternal, Newborn, Child and Adolescent Health 2021-2025 aims to strengthen family planning and adolescent- and youth-friendly services, including access to SRH services and modern contraception.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

The Sexual Offences Special Provisions Act and the Penal Code criminalize FGM and impose both monetary penalties and a prison sentence of five to fifteen years. Individuals performing FGM and parents or legal guardians can be held criminally responsible.

RIGHT TO EDUCATION

The Ministry of Education, Science and Technology has issued Circular No. 2 of 2021 allowing students who have dropped out due to childbirth to return to school within two years of dropping out.

FAMILY PLANNING

No provisions in the law require women to obtain consent from their husband or male guardian, or adolescents to obtain parental or a legal guardian's consent to access SRH services. Similarly, the law does not require any third-party consent that may restrict access to SRH.

The National Family Planning Guidelines and Standards aim to provide explicit directives on operational rules, regulations, and administrative norms, as well as to achieve minimum acceptable performance standards for family planning services and programs.

POLICY OPPORTUNITIES

The data reveal gaps in Tanzania's legal and supportive frameworks across the five indicators assessed. Strengthening these frameworks can help accelerate the country's progress toward gender equality and to improve health outcomes for women, children, and adolescents.

Tanzania may wish to consider translating the following gaps into policy opportunities:

SRH RIGHTS

The law does not guarantee the right to SRH or access to SRH services. Additionally, it does not explicitly prohibit discrimination in accessing SRH services based on sex or gender, age, or marital status.

The National Plan for Reproductive, Maternal, Newborn, Child, and Adolescent Health 2021-2025 acknowledges does not allocate resources for awareness campaigns focusing on SRH.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN AND GIRLS

While FGM is a criminal offense, the law does not address cross-border FGM.

No measures aimed at preventing or eradicating FGM have been adopted.

FAMILY PLANNING

The law does not guarantee access to SRH services in case practitioners raise conscientious objections.

COMPREHENSIVE SEXUALITY EDUCATION

The law does not mandate the provision of CSE in schools.

Guidelines for the delivery of CSE in schools have not been adopted.

RIGHT TO EDUCATION

The law does not explicitly provide for the right of pregnant girls to attend school or for adolescent girls to attend school after childbirth.

No policies have been adopted to keep girls in school or to allow pregnant students to attend school.
